

Suburban Industrial Packaging

In business to serve your business.

For over 30 years, Suburban Industrial Packaging has delivered quality products and excellent customer service. We stock more than just industrial packaging. We provide custom solutions, from design to sourcing. SIP has the expertise to conduct a cost reduction analysis on all your warehousing/fulfillment services and packaging equipment needs.

FAMILY OWNED AND OPERATED

As one of the Midwest's largest packaging distributors, we offer unmatched selection and pricing. And being family-owned, we give customers personalized service without corporate politics.

HOLD FOR RELEASE

Enjoy the benefits of buying in bulk without carrying an entire inventory of packaging supplies. We deliver quality products on time and in time to meet your needs.

CUSTOM SOLUTIONS

Whether you need help developing a customized packaging solution or want to supply your warehouse with packaging equipment and parts, we offer complete and versatile wholesale packaging solutions.
